

Belize-UNH Teacher Program

Education Course 880

Journey to Belize, Central America, over February vacation and earn 4 graduate credits while learning first-hand about education in rural village schools. Meet and work with the people of Belize from government officials to local villagers. Experience Belizean classrooms, a tropical rainforest, coral reef and local cultural events. This program is designed for teachers, school administrators, and other education professionals who want to build global awareness through direct involvement and bring this awareness back to their schools and communities. The program begins in the fall with workshops to prepare for the experience. Spring follow-up sessions will guide participants in assessing and evaluating their experience.

The course starts in November but applications are available now. (Apply early as program has filled in previous years.) Estimated cost is tuition plus a program fee of $1850 (which includes: flights between Boston and Belize, in-country travel, food, lodging, and other group expenses).

Informational slide show has been scheduled for Wed, April 15 at Rye Jr. High School, 4:30 pm and more will be listed on the website.

Brochures are available at the Education Office in Morrill Hall or can be mailed to you. For more information, visit our web site at <http://belize-unh.wikispaces.com/> or email the course leaders.
